Nexus Capital announces its investment in Translatum Holding S.A.P.I. de C.V.

Nexus Capital announces that on February 15, 2017 it has reached an agreement to invest in Translatum Holding S.A.P.I. de C.V. (“TransNetwork”), a holding company to develop a fintech payments platform in which the first component is TransNetwork, a leading company in the B2B electronic domestic and cross-border processing and payments industry. The company enables transfers between the United States, Mexico and other Latin American countries as well as domestic money transfers within Mexico.

This investment will be made through Nexus Capital Private Equity Fund VI, L.P. and Nexus Capital VI Trust (jointly “Nexus VI”), once certain closing conditions are met, including the approval of Mexico’s Antitrust Authority (“COFECE”).

TransNetwork’s money transfer business enables licensed and regulated financial institutions to connect under one standard technology, granting access to a diversified payment network (banks and retailers) in Mexico, Central and South America. With 15 years in the market, TransNetwork has developed a group of transmitters and 20,000 paying locations through 24 payers in eight countries (Mexico, Guatemala, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Colombia, Ecuador and Peru), and with expansion programs underway through diverse commercial alliances.

The remittance corridor between the United States and Latin America has the highest volume in the world, with around US$44 billion worth of remittances sent in 2015 according to the World Bank.

About Nexus Capital

Nexus Capital has actively participated in the private equity industry in Mexico since its inception in 1995 and is one of the country’s largest independent alternative asset managers. It has one of the longest and most successful track records in alternative assets in Latin America focused on enhancing the value of its portfolio.

Including TransNetwork, Nexus Capital has completed 24 investments and has fully divested from 11 portfolio companies. Nexus Capital has raised and managed five funds through seven investment vehicles with aggregate capital commitments of over US$1.2 billion and is the only Mexican alternative asset manager that has listed five portfolio companies in the public markets.

This is the sixth investment of Nexus VI, as it continues analyzing equity investment opportunities in Mexican mid-sized companies with high growth potential, whose value can be enhanced through improved management and operations, value-added acquisitions, and application of world class business models.

Nexus Capital’s vision is to be the Mexican alternative asset manager with whom investors, entrepreneurs and service providers prefer to associate with, due to its value creation capabilities and its thorough transparency, integrity and professionalism.
